

THINK CRITICALLY

Handwrite your responses in the space below; 2 sentences each.

1. Describe the types of financial information found in print items such as magazines, newspapers, and newsletters.
2. List three magazines and two newspapers that give information and advice about investing.
3. Explain why an investor might be willing to pay for a subscription to an investor newsletter.
4. Describe the type of information available in a company annual report.
5. Explain ways you can find investing information on the Internet.
6. List several figures that can be used to compare the performance or value of companies.
7. How do investment professionals, such as stockbrokers or financial planners, help investors?
8. What steps can you take to be sure a stockbroker is qualified to give investing advice or make purchases for an investor?